

Leschenault Cricket Club - Code of Conduct

The Leschenault Cricket Club is fully supports Cricket Australia's Code of Behaviour for Players and Player Support Personnel. The club expects our members, players, parents and coaches to represent our club to the highest standards possible consistent with community expectations and the law.

On Field

- Show respect to Coaches, Officials, Team members, other teams and supporters.
- Support your coach. They are there as a volunteer, show them the courtesy and respect they deserve, even if they make decisions you don't agree with.
- The Umpire's decision is final.
- Dress in appropriate cricket clothing, i.e. club shirt, Team representative shirt.
- Play by the Rules and the Spirit of the Game.
- Play to your best ability, not only for yourself but also for your team and club.
- Let your coach know if you are unable to attend training or play a game.

Off Field

- Represent Leschenault Cricket Club the best way possible, especially in Development/Representative teams.
- Approach training as it is a game, remember the harder you train, the harder you will play.
- Treat club gear with respect.
- Don't use Social Media as a way of talking negatively about the club, players, coaches, parents, opposition teams and players.

All matters of behaviours relating to this Code of Conduct within the jurisdiction of the cricket club will be dealt with by Senior Members/Players, or in some situations the Committee and President. Transgressions may result in suspension or banning of players, parents and or spectators.

By registering with the Leschenault Cricket Club we agree to abide by this Code of Conduct. We support the Club, Committee and coaches in this Code of Conduct.
